

Cache Valley Unified Support Program

1

Who do we serve?

Cache County community members struggling with mental health and/or substance use that could benefit from individualized assistance navigating community services and resources.

2

Who are we?

We are a multidisciplinary group of professionals who live and work in your community. We collaborate to identify the best resources and offer valuable, client-directed care.

3

Next Step:

Reach out to one of the non-clinical case managers today to see how the Cache Valley Unified Support Program can assist you.

Crisis/Emergency Contact:

National Suicide Prevention Lifeline 1-800-273-8255

For Emergency Services please call- 911